De Gruyter Publishing House Tour and Reception at Sociolinguistics Symposium 19

Dear Colleagues, Dear Authors and Editors of De Gruyter Mouton,

De Gruyter Mouton would like to cordially invite you to a reception on occasion of the Sociolinguistics Symposium 19 in Berlin. We are particularly thrilled that Sociolinguistics Symposium finds itself in our home city in 2012.

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome you for a tour of our publishing house at Genthiner Straße 13, 10785 Berlin, followed by a reception in the courtyard. The tour will begin at 5:30pm, August 22nd, 2012. Refreshments will be served. Our house is nestled between Potsdamer Platz and Kurfürstendamm, and is a perfect stopping point between the Sociolinguistics Symposium and your evening in Berlin. Further directions will be provided at our conference booth.

We are very much looking forward to welcoming you to our city.

Sincerely,

Emily Farrell
